Annotations

1. Adoption of the agenda

Under rule 8 of the Committee's rules of procedure, the first item on the agenda of any session shall be the adoption of the agenda, except when the election of officers is required under rule 16. Under this item, the Committee will adopt the agenda for the session.

In accordance with rule 6 of the rules of procedure, the present provisional agenda has been prepared by the Secretary-General in consultation with the Chair of the Committee. In accordance with rule 9 of its rules of procedure, the Committee may revise the agenda during the session and may, as appropriate, defer or delete items; only urgent and important items may be added to the agenda.

2. Organizational and other matters

The sixty-seventh session of the Committee will be held at the United Nations Office at Geneva, in Palais des Nations, from 22 July to 9 August 2019, and will be opened by a representative of the Secretary-General. The first meeting will be convened on Monday, 22 July 2019, at 10 a.m.

Pursuant to rule 31 of the rules of procedure, the meetings of the Committee will be held in public unless the Committee decides otherwise or it appears from the relevant provisions of the Convention that the meetings should be held in private.

The Committee will consider its programme of work for the session, its working methods, its annual report and any other matter concerning the modalities of discharging its functions under the Convention.

3. Submission of reports by States parties under article 19 of the Convention

States parties to the Convention

As at 14 May 2019, there were 166 States parties to the Convention.
