List of issues prior to the submission of the third periodic report of MAURITIUS (CAT/C/MUS/3)¹

Specific information on the implementation of articles 1 to 16 of the Convention, including with regard to the Committee previous recommendations

Articles 1 and 4

1. With reference to the Committee’s previous concluding observations, please provide information on whether a definition of torture, encompassing all cases covered by article 1 of the Convention has been incorporated into the State party’s internal legislation. In particular, please indicate whether the 2003 Criminal Code (Amendment) Act, by the insertion of a section on torture by public official, has brought the national legislation in line with the Convention? Please also provide detailed information on the application of this legislation.

2. Currently, under which specific norms are perpetrators of acts of torture prosecuted, including with regard to military and police personnel?

Article 2

3. Please provide information on the preventive measures, in particular, legal provisions and administrative instructions, which guarantee the rights of persons under arrest or detention to be brought before a judge. Please indicate the rules concerning the registration of a person from the time of his arrest to the time of his imprisonment as a result of a judicial decision. In this connection, also provide information on the rights of detained persons, to have access to a lawyer access to an independent doctor, if possible of their choice, to inform their family or any person of their choice about the detention, as from the outset of their arrest.

¹ The present list of issues was adopted by the Committee at its forty-second session, according to the new optional procedure established by the Committee at its thirty-eighth session, which consists in the preparation and adoption of lists of issues to be transmitted to States parties prior to the submission of their respective periodic report. The replies of the State party to this list of issues will constitute its report under article 19 of the Convention.

GE.09-43649
4. Please indicate whether the domestic law specifically provides that no exceptional circumstances whatsoever may be invoked as a justification of torture.

5. With reference to the Committee’s previous concluding observations, please indicate whether appropriate legislation has been enacted in order to ensure that superior orders can never be invoked as a justification of an act of torture.\(^2\)

6. A National Human Rights Commission has been set up in 2001 under the Protection of Human Rights Act of 1998. Please provide detailed information on the mandate, resources, activities and results of this institution and its compliance with the Paris Principles related to the status of national institutions for the promotion and protection of human rights (General Assembly resolution 48/134), including the relevant statistical data.

7. Please indicate which efforts have been undertaken with a view to designate or maintain, at the domestic level, one or several visiting bodies for the prevention of torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment as required under the Optional Protocol to the Convention against Torture. Please also indicate the resources, activities and results of such institutions.

8. Which measures have been implemented to ensure that Inspectors and Chief Inspectors of Police play an active role in the supervision of police stations and police officers and make regular reports? Which independent body monitors the police and the police stations or complaints?

9. With regard to preventing any recurrence of death in police custody, has the State party taken into account the recommendations formulated by the National Human Rights Commission in its 2007 annual report?

Article 3

10. With reference to the Committee’s previous concluding observations, please indicate whether legislation has been introduced to give effect to all the provisions of article 3 of the Convention by preventing not only extradition, but also return and expulsion of persons in danger of being subjected to torture.\(^3\)

11. Please provide information regarding whether, since the previous report, any expulsion, return or extradition has taken place and, if so, which adequate judicial mechanisms for the review of the decision have been put in place. Indicate to which countries and if diplomatic assurances were provided. If so, elaborate on this issue. Also, indicate which post-return monitoring arrangements have been adopted.

12. With respect to anti-terrorism legislation that the State party has enacted since its previous report, please elaborate on the safeguards contained in those instruments to ensure that the right of the Mauritian authorities to extradite persons suspected of ‘acts of terrorism’ at the request of foreign states take into account the risk of their facing torture or cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment in their country of origin or any other country. Please indicate if under this legislation, any suspects have been extradited, expelled or returned and to which countries.
