Specific information on the implementation of articles 1 to 16 of the Convention, including with regard to the Committee's previous recommendations.

Articles 1 and 4

1. Please provide detailed information on whether the State party has adopted a definition of torture, integrating all the elements, in accordance with article 1 of the Convention.
2. Further to the recommendation of the Committee in the previous concluding observations (para. 6), what legislative measures has the State party taken to ensure that all acts of torture are offences under its criminal law in accordance with the definition contained in article 1 of the Convention, and that these offences are punishable by appropriate penalties which take into account their grave nature?<sup>1</sup>

* The present list of issues was adopted by the Committee at its forty-fifth session, according to the new optional procedure established by the Committee at its thirty-eighth session, which consists in the preparation and adoption of lists of issues to be transmitted to States parties prior to the submission of their respective periodic report. The replies of the State party to this list of issues will constitute the next periodic report under article 19 of the Convention.

3. Please provide updated information on the legal safeguards and other measures taken to guarantee that a person under arrest is immediately informed of his/her right to consult with counsel and to receive independent and free legal aid when he/she cannot afford private counsel.<sup>3</sup> Please provide information on the rights of detained persons to obtain prompt access to independent medical assistance and to notify a relative. Please also indicate whether a statement of detainee rights is available at all places of detention for consultation by detainees.

4. Please provide information on measures taken by the State party to register all persons it detains under its jurisdiction by documenting the identity of the detainee, the date, time and place of the detention, the identity of the authority that detained the person, the ground for the detention, the date and time of admission to the detention facility and the state of health of the detainee upon admission and any changes thereto, the time and place of interrogations, with the names of all interrogators present, as well as the date and time of release or transfer to another detention facility.

5. Further to the recommendation of the Committee in its previous concluding observations (para. 13), what measures have been taken to review all legal provisions which authorize certain disciplinary measures, in particular section 37 of the Prison Act of 1998 which allows for whipping, flogging and reduction of diet, with a view to abolishing those which authorize such practices in conformity with the United Nations Standard of Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners.<sup>4</sup>

6. As requested in the follow-up letter of 14 May 2010, please provide updated information on the status of the Sexual Offences draft bill – has this been passed or is there an anticipated date by which it will be passed? Please also clarify what this bill covers, including punishments for convicted persons and compensation and other services for victims.

7. Further to the recommendation of the Committee in its previous concluding observations (para. 20), please provide information on measures taken by the State party to reduce cases of domestic violence, including training of police, law enforcement personnel and health personnel, in order to investigate and deal with instances of domestic violence and to also make more effective use of the Domestic Violence Act of 1996.<sup>5</sup> Please also provide statistical data on the prevalence of violence against women, including rape and sexual harassment, and children. Statistical data should also be provided on complaints relating to violence against women and children, and on the related investigations, prosecutions, and penal sanctions as well as on any compensation provided to victims.

8. Please provide information on measures taken to combat harassment and physical violence towards LGBT persons and to promote the education of members of the police on

2 The issues raised under article 2 could imply also different articles of the Convention, including, but not limited to, article 16. As general comment n°2, paragraph 3, states "the obligation to prevent torture in article 2 is wide-ranging. The obligations to prevent torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment (hereinafter "ill-treatment") under article 16, paragraph 1, are indivisible, interdependent and interrelated. The obligation to prevent ill-treatment in practice overlaps with and is largely congruent with the obligation to prevent torture....In practice, the definitional threshold between ill-treatment and torture is often not clear." See further Chapter V of the same general comment.

9. Please provide detailed information on measures taken to combat sexual abuse against children, child prostitution and sexual exploitation.<sup>7</sup>

10. Please provide detailed information on the implementation of the Combating of Trafficking in Persons Act, 2005 (Act No. 2 of 2005). Please provide statistical data on the extent of trafficking and exploitation of prostitution in the country, the number of complaints received and investigated during the reporting period, as well as the number of prosecutions and convictions under the Act.

11. Further to the recommendation of the Committee in its previous concluding observations (para. 9), please provide information on measures taken by the State party to ensure that the Guyana Police Force prevent the high number of deaths of persons in custody?<sup>8</sup> Does the State party intend to create penitentiary personnel to be specifically trained to appropriately deal with prisoners?

12. Further to the recommendation of the Committee in its previous concluding observations (para. 21), please provide information on steps taken to make the necessary appointments to the institutions for the promotion and protection of human rights. Also, please provide information on measures taken to ensure the resumption of the activities of the Office of the Ombudsman and to provide it with the human rights resources in order to allow it to carry out its mandate.<sup>9</sup>

Article 3

13. Please provide detailed information on measures taken to respect the absolute prohibition to expel, return or extradite a person to another State where there are substantial grounds for believing that he/she would be in danger of being subjected to torture and to fully incorporate the provisions of article 3 into the State party's domestic law.

14. Has the State party relied on diplomatic assurances? If so, please indicate what measures have been taken to ensure that they conform to the State party's obligations under article 3. Also, please provide detailed information on what the State party's requirements are for such assurances and whether there are post-return monitoring mechanisms.

15. Please provide data, disaggregated by age, sex and nationality on:

- (a) The number of asylum requests registered and approved;
- (b) The number of asylum-seekers whose requests were granted because they had been tortured or might be tortured if they were returned to their country of origin;
- (c) The number of forcible deportations or expulsions (please indicate how many of them involved rejected asylum-seekers), and the countries to which these persons were expelled.
