B. General measures of implementation

1. The Committee would appreciate information on action taken in response to recommendations made in its previous concluding observations on the initial report of Kazakhstan (CRC/C/15/Add.213) which have not yet been fully implemented, and in particular in relation to the following:
the prevention of any form of discrimination against vulnerable groups of children and especially against children with disabilities; the prohibition of all forms of physical and mental violence, including corporal punishment, within the family, schools and other institutions; the situation of refugee children; the administration of juvenile justice; the reduction and elimination of child labour; and the increase in the number of street children and working children.

2. Please provide information about the government body or bodies responsible for coordinating the implementation of the Convention, as well as its/their mandate and financial and human resources.
3. Please provide information on cases, if any, where the Convention has been directly invoked in domestic courts, and provide examples of such cases.
4. Please provide additional information on the role of the national human rights institution and the Ombudsman, in particular in monitoring the implementation of the rights of children, and on the financial and human resources.
5. Please provide information on the content of the State programme “Children of Kazakhstan” (2006-2011) and on whether this programme provides for the implementation of all substantive articles of the Convention and takes into account the objectives and goals of the outcome document entitled “Building a World Fit for Children” of the General Assembly Special Session on Children (2002).
6. Please provide updated information on efforts to disseminate the Convention, the State party report and the previous concluding observations of the Committee, and on efforts made to provide training on and awareness of the Convention and human rights in general to children, parents, teachers, social workers and other professionals working with and for children.
7. Please provide updated information on the cooperation between the State party and the international community, including non-governmental organizations, in the efforts to implement the Convention.
8. Please indicate the issues affecting children which the State party considers to be priorities requiring the most urgent attention with regard to the implementation of the Convention.

PART II

Please provide the Committee with copies of the text of the Convention on the Rights of the Child in all official languages of the State party as well as in other languages or dialects, when available. If possible, please submit these texts in electronic form.

PART III

The State party should briefly (three pages maximum) update the information contained in its report with regard to:

- New bills or enacted legislation;
- New institutions;
- Newly implemented policies;
- Newly implemented programmes and projects, and their scope.
