* The present list of issues was adopted by the Committee at its 103rd session, according to the new optional procedure established by the Committee at its ninety-ninth session. This new procedure consists of the adoption of lists of issues by the Committee, which are transmitted to States parties prior to the submission of their periodic reports. The replies from States parties to these lists of issues will constitute their periodic reports under article 40 of the Covenant.

Please provide an update on the implementation of decisions on compensation and medical and psychological rehabilitation measures adopted by the Special Commission established in April 2010 and by the Commission established in April 2011.

5. In the light of the State party's response to the previous concluding observations (CCPR/C/MDA/CO/2/Add.1, para. 9), please provide information on the progress made on the 27 cases against police officers that have been referred to the courts for indictment. Please also provide further information on any other cases in which police officers have been indicted. What measures have been taken to implement the National Human Rights Action Plan for 2011–2014 with regard to access by victims of torture to legal assistance services and medical and social rehabilitation services?

6. Please provide information on the demonstrations, protests and assemblies that have taken place since the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeal prohibiting the conduct of assemblies was quashed by the decision made on 28 April 2010 by the Civil and Administrative College of the Supreme Court. Please explain how law enforcement personnel have been implementing the Law on Assemblies since the decision of the Supreme Court was quashed.

7. Please provide information on the measures taken to ensure that human rights training of law enforcement personnel, prosecutors and judges is systematic and conducted on a regular basis in the context of the various reform proposals for the work of the Ministry of Internal Affairs. Please provide an update on the steps taken to train a total of 800 judges and prosecutors between November 2010 and May 2011. Please also state if any evaluation of the impact of training programmes for police and prison officials as regards the fundamental principles applicable to the investigation of cases of torture (Manual on the Effective Investigation and Documentation of Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (Istanbul Protocol)) has taken place. What action has been taken to ensure the independence of the authorities who investigate torture and ill-treatment?

8. Please provide information on the impact that the new department to combat torture, established within the structure of the Prosecutor General under Parliament Decision No. 77 of 4 May 2010, has had in combating torture and ill-treatment. Please state the number of cases under investigation and of those that have been referred for prosecution since the establishment of the department. Please also indicate if the new department has conducted a study on the phenomenon of torture, including to determine the factors, causes and conditions that perpetuate this phenomenon in the State party.

9. Please provide information on the measures taken to implement the framework regulation for the organization and operation of rehabilitation centres for victims of domestic violence that was approved by the Government through its Decision No. 129 of 22 February 2010. What is the status of the draft Government decision to approve minimum quality standards for social services provided in rehabilitation centres for victims of domestic violence? If it has been adopted, please provide information on its implementation.

10. Please provide information on the implementation of the Strategy of the National Reference System with regard to the provision of protection and assistance to victims and potential victims of trafficking in persons, and the Action Plan for 2009-2011 that was approved by Parliament through its Decision No. 257 of 5 December 2008.
