In accordance with rule 72 of the rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their States, and may also submit further information.

In accordance with rule 72 of the Committee's rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the fifty-eighth session of the Committee, at which their respective reports will be examined, and has invited them to send representatives to attend these meetings of the Committee.

5. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

Under this item, the Committee will pursue its discussion on how existing cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child. In particular, the Committee will hold its third biennial meeting with the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

6. Methods of work of the Committee

Under this item, the Committee will pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, as well as the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up, including where necessary areas identified for technical assistance.

7. Days of general discussion

The Committee decided at its fifty-fifth session that it would hold a day of general discussion in 2011 on the rights of children of incarcerated parents. The Committee will hold its day of general discussion on this theme on 30 September 2011 at the Palais des Nations. Documentation and information related to the day of general discussion is available on the web page of the Committee on the Rights of the Child at <http://www2.ohchr.org/english/bodies/crc/discussion2011.htm>.

8. General comments

Under this item, the Committee will continue to draft general comments based on the various principles and provisions of the Convention, and specifically on article 3, the principle of the best interests of the child; on article 31, the right to play; on article 24, the right to health; and on business and children's rights; as well as the draft joint general comment with the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women on harmful practices. It will also discuss other topics for future general comments.

9. Future sessions

Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future sessions.

10. Other matters

Under this item, members will discuss such other matters relating to the work of the Committee as considered necessary.
