Information received from Luxembourg on follow-up to the concluding observations on its fourth periodic report*

[Date received: 29 July 2025]

* The present document is being issued without formal editing.

Follow-up information on the concluding observations (CCPR/C/LUX/CO/4)

Follow-up information relating to paragraph 12 of the concluding observations

Sexual orientation, gender identity and intersex persons

1. The coalition agreement for 2023–2028 provides that: “The Government will commit to respecting and strengthening the protection of non-binary gender identities. It will undertake to ensure that the procedures for [...] sex assignment for intersex persons are assessed and adapted to their needs. The Government will closely monitor and analyse the relevant legal frameworks in force in other countries of the European Union.”
2. To take account of international recommendations and the coalition agreement, the Government will establish an interministerial working group, which will include relevant stakeholders, to review the procedures applicable to sex assignment for intersex persons and adjust them as needed.

Follow-up information relating to paragraph 26 of the concluding observations

Right of peaceful assembly

3. To date, no legislative measures have been adopted in response to general comment No. 37, as the relevant legal analysis is still under way.
