Annotated provisional agenda*

Provisional agenda

1. Declaration by the newly elected members of the Committee.
2. Election of the officers of the Committee.
3. Adoption of the agenda.
4. Organizational and other matters.
5. Submission of reports by States Parties under article 19 of the Convention.
6. Consideration of reports submitted by States Parties under article 19 of the Convention.
7. Consideration of information submitted under article 20 of the Convention.
8. Consideration of communications submitted under article 22 of the Convention.

Annotations

1. Declaration by the newly elected members of the Committee

In accordance with rule 14 of the rules of procedure, the new members of the Committee elected at the twentieth meeting of the States Parties to the Convention, held on 1 October 2025, will make the following declaration:

I solemnly declare that I will perform my duties and exercise my powers as a member of the Committee against Torture honourably, faithfully, independently, impartially and conscientiously.

2. Election of the officers of the Committee

In accordance with article 18 (1) of the Convention and rules 16 and 17 of the rules of procedure, under this item, the Committee will elect from among its members a Chair, three Vice-Chairs and a Rapporteur for a term of two years. In electing its officers, the Committee shall give consideration to equitable geographical distribution and appropriate gender balance and, to the extent possible, rotation among members.

* The present document was submitted to the conference services for processing after the deadline so as to include the most recent information.

3. Adoption of the agenda

Under rule 8 of the Committee's rules of procedure, the first item on the agenda of any session shall be the adoption of the agenda, except when the election of officers is required under rule 16. Under this item, the Committee will adopt the agenda for the session.

In accordance with rule 6 of the rules of procedure, the present provisional agenda has been prepared by the Secretary-General in consultation with the Chair of the Committee. In accordance with rule 9 of its rules of procedure, the Committee may revise the agenda during the session and may, as appropriate, defer or delete items; only urgent and important items may be added to the agenda.

4. Organizational and other matters

The eighty-fourth session of the Committee will be held at the United Nations Office at Geneva from 13 April to 1 May 2026 and will be opened by a representative of the Secretary-General. The first meeting will be convened on Monday, 13 April 2026, at 10 a.m.

The Committee will consider its programme of work for the session and any other matters concerning the modalities of discharging its functions under the Convention.

5. Submission of reports by States Parties under article 19 of the Convention

7. Consideration of information submitted under article 20 of the Convention

In accordance with the provisions of chapter XIX of its rules of procedure, the Committee considers information that has been, or appears to have been, submitted for its consideration under article 20 of the Convention.

In accordance with the provisions of article 20 (5) of the Convention and rules 78 and 79 of the rules of procedure, all documents and proceedings of the Committee relating to its functions under article 20 of the Convention are confidential and all the meetings concerning its proceedings under that article are closed.

8. Consideration of communications submitted under article 22 of the Convention

In accordance with the provisions of chapter XXI of its rules of procedure, the Committee considers communications that have been, or appear to have been, submitted to it under article 22 of the Convention. In accordance with article 22 (6) of the Convention and rule 107 (1) of the rules of procedure, meetings of the Committee or its subsidiary bodies during which communications under article 22 of the Convention are examined are closed.
