In accordance with rule 72 of the rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their States, and may also submit further information.

In accordance with rule 72 of the Committee's rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the sixty-fifth session of the Committee, at which their respective reports will be examined, and has invited them to send representatives to attend these meetings of the Committee.

5. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

Under this item, the Committee will pursue its discussion on how its cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

6. Methods of work of the Committee and treaty-body strengthening

Under this item, the Committee will pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, as well as the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up. In particular, the Committee will continue its discussion on issues related to its methods of work, including the format of the interactive dialogue with States parties. The Committee will also continue its discussion on the work of its focal group on the treaty-body strengthening process. With respect to the latter, the Committee will have at its disposal the report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on the strengthening of the human rights treaty bodies (A/66/860).

7. Days of general discussion

The Committee decided at its sixty-second session to hold a day of general discussion every two years. As decided at its sixty-first session, the theme of the 2014 day of general discussion will be "Media, social networks and the rights of the child". The day of general discussion will be held during the sixty-seventh session at Palais des Nations, Geneva, on 12 September 2014.

8. General comments

Under this item, the Committee will continue work on the draft joint general comment on harmful practices which is being developed with the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women. The Committee will also consider possible topics for future general comments.

9. Future sessions

Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future sessions.

10. Other matters

Under this item, members will discuss any other matters relating to the work of the Committee as considered necessary.
