7. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies.
8. Methods of work of the Committee.
9. General comments.
10. Future meetings.
11. Other matters.
12. Biennial report of the Committee on its activities.

Annotations

Item 1. Adoption of the agenda

1. Under rule 8 of the provisional rules of procedure, the first item on the provisional agenda shall be the adoption of the agenda, except for the election of officers when required under rule 16. In accordance with rule 9 of the provisional rules of procedure, the Committee may revise the agenda and may, as appropriate, add, defer or delete items. Only urgent or important items may be added to the agenda.

Item 2. Filling of casual vacancy and solemn declaration by the new member of the Committee

2. On 1 October 1999, Mrs. Nafsiah Mboi, Chairperson of the Committee, notified the Secretary-General that as of 9 October 1999 she could no longer perform her duties as a member of the Committee. In accordance with rule 14.4 of the provisional rules of procedure, the Committee will consider for approval by secret ballot the name and the curriculum vitae of the expert appointed to serve the remainder of the term of the former member of the Committee. Once the appointment is approved, the new member of the Committee will be requested to make the following solemn declaration in open meeting:

“I solemnly declare that I will perform my duties and exercise my powers as a member of the Committee on the Rights of the Child honourably, faithfully, impartially and conscientiously.”

Item 3. Election of the officers of the Committee

3. In accordance with article 43, paragraph 9, of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, the Committee shall elect its officers for a term of two years. In this connection, the Committee may elect its Chairperson and, if needed, its other officers.

Item 4. Organizational and other matters

4. Under this item, the Committee may wish to consider its programme of work for the session, as well as any other matter concerning the modalities of discharging its functions under the Convention.

Item 5. Submission of reports by States parties in accordance with article 44 of the Convention

12. In accordance with rule 68 of the provisional rules of procedure, representatives of the States parties shall be invited to attend the meetings of the Committee when their reports are examined. Such representatives should be able to answer questions put to them by the Committee and make statements on reports already submitted by their State, and may also submit further information.

13. In accordance with rule 68 of the Committee's provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General has notified the States parties concerned of the opening date, duration and place of the twenty-third session of the Committee, at which their respective reports will be examined, and has invited them to send representatives to attend the meetings of the Committee at which their reports will be examined.

Item 7. Cooperation with other United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and other competent bodies

14. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion of ways and areas in which existing cooperation with various relevant bodies could be further strengthened to enhance the promotion and protection of the rights of the child.

Item 8. Methods of work of the Committee

15. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue its discussion concerning the organization of its future work, as well as the procedure to be followed in the consideration of reports by States parties and their follow-up, including where necessary areas identified for technical assistance.

16. Under this item, the Committee will have before it a note by the Secretary-General on areas identified by the Committee for technical assistance and advisory services (CRC/C/40/Rev.14). The Committee will also have before it a note by the secretariat containing a compilation of the conclusions and recommendations adopted by the Committee at its first to twenty-second sessions (CRC/C/19/Rev.10).

Item 9. General comments

17. Under this item, the Committee may wish to pursue the elaboration of general comments based on the various principles and provisions of the Convention.

Item 10. Future meetings

18. Under this item, the Committee will be informed of any developments relating to the schedule of its future meetings.

Item 11. Other matters

19. Under this item, members may wish to discuss such other matters relating to the work of the Committee as may be necessary.

Item 12. Biennial report of the Committee on its activities

20. In accordance with article 44, paragraph 5, of the Convention, the Committee shall submit, every two years, reports on its activities to the General Assembly, through the Economic and Social Council.

21. The biennial report to be submitted to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session will include the activities of the Committee at its eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second and twenty-third sessions.

Notes

¹ A revised version of the initial report of Niger submitted in 1994 (CRC/C/3/Add.29), which would take into account the general guidelines for reporting was requested for submission by the end of 1994.

² In response to a note verbale sent by the Government of Australia on 17 August 1999 requesting guidance on the periodicity of submission of its second periodic report, the Committee, by letter sent on 22 September 1999, invited the Australian authorities to submit a consolidated second and third periodic report by 15 January 2003.
